

Society discusses weddings, past and to come.

While the great crush of June weddings ended with last week, there are still enough to come both this week and the following, so that it is still not too late for those who have not yet decided to get married. The first of these is the wedding of Miss Anna H. Slade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Slade, who will be married to Mr. Barton Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barton Thompson, on Wednesday, June 12, at 10 o'clock, at the Episcopal Church in Midtown. The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. H. H. Slade, who was a prominent member of the Episcopal Church, and the groom is a son of the late Mr. Barton Thompson, who was also a prominent member of the Episcopal Church. The wedding will be a very quiet affair, with only a few friends and relatives present. The bride is a very beautiful girl, and the groom is a very handsome young man. They were both educated at the University of Chicago, and both are now residing in New York City.

Miss Anna H. Slade, who will marry Barton Thompson this week in New York.

The bride's dress was a simple, elegant affair, with a high collar and long sleeves. She wore a veil and carried a bouquet of flowers. The groom wore a dark suit and a white shirt with a bow tie. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. [Name], who is the rector of the church. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were seated at a table with their parents and a few other guests. The reception was very simple, with only a few refreshments served. The wedding was a very quiet affair, with only a few friends and relatives present.

Two society weddings of this week are to take place on Wednesday, one large and the other extremely small and quiet. Miss George Wright and Charles Parsons, both of whom are daughters of the late Mr. George Wright, will be married at 10 o'clock in the afternoon at the Episcopal Church in Midtown. The bride is a very beautiful girl, and the groom is a very handsome young man. They were both educated at the University of Chicago, and both are now residing in New York City. The wedding will be a very quiet affair, with only a few friends and relatives present.

At half past 8 that same evening, Miss Mabel Holmes and Edward Mann, both of whom are daughters of the late Mr. Edward Mann, will be married at 10 o'clock in the afternoon at the Episcopal Church in Midtown. The bride is a very beautiful girl, and the groom is a very handsome young man. They were both educated at the University of Chicago, and both are now residing in New York City. The wedding will be a very quiet affair, with only a few friends and relatives present.

Announcements of a New York wedding have been received last week in St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, who are both of whom are daughters of the late Mr. Charles Johnson, will be married at 10 o'clock in the afternoon at the Episcopal Church in Midtown. The bride is a very beautiful girl, and the groom is a very handsome young man. They were both educated at the University of Chicago, and both are now residing in New York City. The wedding will be a very quiet affair, with only a few friends and relatives present.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark will spend a short time at their country place, "Clarkburn," before going East for the summer. They are now in the country, with the Charles Clark family and their infant son. The country place is a very beautiful one, with a large house and a beautiful garden. The family is very happy and contented.

Colonel and Mrs. George A. S. Hayward will be married at 10 o'clock in the afternoon at the Episcopal Church in Midtown. The bride is a very beautiful girl, and the groom is a very handsome young man. They were both educated at the University of Chicago, and both are now residing in New York City. The wedding will be a very quiet affair, with only a few friends and relatives present.

Evenings in the Summer Home. Are made most delightfully enjoyable through the aid of the PIANOLA. The great popularity of the PIANOLA in Summer Homes is a pertinent illustration of its practical value. In these retreats away from musical entertainment the PIANOLA provides the pleasure of hearing any composition one's mood may call for at any time, with the added pleasure of producing the music one's self. The PIANOLA is an inexhaustible source of entertainment and an invaluable ally to the hostess, for it always knows how to play.
